Dear Alumni and Friends,

As we enter into the 2017-18 school year, I look back and reflect on what an amazing summer we had at Spellman! Our students continue to embrace countless opportunities to grow academically, physically, and spiritually; and our alumni and friends continue to support us, making these programs possible.

In June, Achieve 100 Hits the Streets and the Annual Alumni Golf Outing led the way in our fundraising efforts. Thank you to all who shared in these events. Achieve 100 raised more than $35,000 for Spellman financial aid programs. Every dollar will be going to help Spellman families in need afford tuition. That knowledge helped give me the determination to keep going during the 27 hours of running around New York City. I was thrilled to see the spirit of Spellman evident in every borough, as I was cheered on by countless members of the Spellman community.

The Annual Alumni Golf Outing on June 28 was the best ever. We raised over $60,000 during a day filled with camaraderie, good memories, and a sports legend. What a better way to end the day, than with “Goose” Gossage and an auction! Congratulations to Liam McLaughlin’85, our honoree. My sincere thanks to Ms. Jennifer Rivera ’96, our Vice President of Advancement, her office, and the Golf Committee. Their hard work is evident not just at the Outing, but every day at Spellman.

July saw the continuing success of our Summer Leadership Programs. The Pilot Enrichment Program for students entering 7th and 8th grade had its largest cohort ever. And the Leaders in Training Program for our incoming 9th graders prepared the top members of the Class of 2021 for Freshman year.

August ushered in another new program on Baychester, Spellman Adventure Leadership Training (SALT). This program took 15 members of the Class of 2018 to Princeton University’s Outdoor Leadership Center in Northwestern New Jersey, where they strengthened their leadership and teambuilding skills. Their lessons were put to the test immediately after, when they participated in an overnight backpacking trip on the Appalachian Trail. A life-changing adventure for young men and women from the Bronx! And now we begin a new school year. I look forward to new challenges, new adventures, and most of all the new success stories of our students. If it were not for your generosity, none of this would be possible.

THANK YOU FOR ALL THAT YOU DO FOR SPELLMAN.

Yours in Christ,
Dan O’Keefe

The Reverend Francis J. Principe, 89, died peacefully on Tuesday, June 6, 2017 at the Edward Cardinal Egan Pavilion, St. John Vianney Clergy Residence in the Bronx, New York. Father Francis was born in the Bronx to Rose and Frank Principe. He is survived by a dear sister, Yolanda Sirna and a dear brother, Eugene Principe. Father Principe’s beloved parents and older sister Mary preceded him in death. Father Principe touched the lives of many nieces and nephews and countless students and faculty at Cardinal Hayes and Cardinal Spellman High Schools. Father was a kind and wise teacher and scholar who inspired many to be humble, peaceful and loving as he was. Many remember Father Principe saying that we all should “Live our lives with more Easter Sundays and fewer Good Fridays”. Father Francis Principe was beloved by many and will remain present in our hearts and minds forever.

On Monday June 12th Cardinal Spellman High School hosted the Mass of the Holy Eucharist. Rev. John Monaghan gave the Homily. Mass of Christian Burial was held the next day at Holy Family Church in the Bronx. Fr. Principe was interred at St. Raymond’s Cemetery, Bronx, NY.

In memory of their beloved Uncle Francis, the Principe family has provided a leadership gift to establish the Fr. Francis Principe Scholarship to benefit Spellman students. The ultimate goal is endow this fund ($100,000) so that it will be available in perpetuity. If you would like to make a donation to this scholarship, please send a check, made payable to Cardinal Spellman High School and note Fr. Principe Scholarship in the memo section. Gifts can also submitted online: www.cardinalspellman.org/principe

Excerpt from Rev. Monaghan’s Homily, Mass of the Eucharist, June 12, 2017 at Cardinal Spellman High School

And now he’s going home to God, a month short of his 90th Birthday. What do you think they’re going to say when he arrives at the Gate of Heaven? What words do people use when a priest dies? What will Frank hear?

I think it might be this – Euge, Euge, Servus Bonus et Fidelis – Well done, well-done thou good and faithful Servant. Today, Frank is teaching us still, teaching us to be proud (and to be grateful) for God’s tender mercies.

On Father’s Day morning, Sunday, June 18th, Cardinal Spellman High School’s President and Principal Dan O’Keefe, a decorated athlete, did it again! He completed running 103.3 miles around NYC (in 27 hours and 15 minutes) to help raise awareness and funds for Spellman’s financial aid program. Mr. O’Keefe crossed the Times Square finish line at 8:15 a.m. This amazing initiative raised more than $35,000 to help our families in need. Donations are still being accepted on the school website www.cardinalspellman.org/achieve100.

Mr. O’Keefe calls this initiative, “Achieve 100 Hits the Streets”, a variation of the 2014 “Achieve 100” event he created, which received national attention, when he ran 100 miles in 24 hours on the school track to raise money for the sports and activities programs. “I constantly challenge the students at Spellman to achieve their limits and beyond. I tell them to never let anyone say something is impossible. I challenge them to give 100%, to achieve 100%, and to be present 100% in everything they do,” stated President/Principal O’Keefe.

Notably, during Mr. O’Keefe’s path through the Bronx, he detoured to Cardinal Spellman High School and ran one lap around the Spellman track with the Cheerleading team and Spellman’s Director of Spiritual Activities, Rev. Peter Pilsner. Spellman staff, faculty, students, alumni, parents and friends gathered on the sidelines to cheer them on.

Numerous news media outlets were present to cover this remarkable effort which brought awareness to the need for tuition assistance for our Spellman families. The event was highlighted by The Bronx Times, Catholic New York (photographer was Mary DiBiase Blaich, class of 1969 grad), News12 The Bronx, and New4 NY/NBC-TV.

The course ran north through Manhattan, over the Broadway Bridge into the Bronx, through parks and green ways to Orchard Beach, over the RFK Bridge into Queens, through Queens park corridor, including Flushing Meadows Park/Unisphere, then to Rockaway Beach, Coney Island, and the Brooklyn Bridge back to Manhattan, finishing in Times Square.
Spellman hosted the 8th Annual Alumni and Friends Golf Outing on Wednesday, June 28th at Leewood Golf Club in Eastchester, NY. This event, under the new leadership of Golf Committee Chairman, Nick Mancini ’10, helped raise over $60,000 for the scholarship fund—almost doubling last year’s record.

It was a beautiful day—weather forecasters called it “the best day of the year.” An enthusiastic group of golfers enjoyed a tasty buffet lunch overlooking the course, a putting contest and an open driving range. Many tried their luck at winning an assortment of prizes at designated holes, including a new car! This year’s special celebrity golfer and dinner guest was, “Goose” Gossage, a former Major League Baseball relief pitcher for the New York Yankees.

Later that day, golfers joined guests for cocktails and a silent auction at the clubhouse as “Goose” Gossage took the time to sign baseball paraphernalia and tell stories of his time as a Yankee. Attendees then took their seats for a sit-down dinner and a live auction. Additionally, Christopher Vitale ’88, the current Golf Outing Scholarship recipient relayed his thanks to all in attendance and spoke of his time as a student and his participation on the football and baseball teams.

This year’s special Master of Ceremonies was Dean Meminger, class of 1988 and Reporter for NY1 News. As the MC Dean provided comic relief and helped keep the evening’s program running smoothly. He introduced alumni and golf committee member, Elizabeth (McKieran) Healy ’84 who presented the “Squeere Deum” Award to this year’s honoree, Liam McLaughlin ’85, Yonkers City Council President. Liam was honored for his years of dedicated service to Spellman as a former Chairman of the golf outing committee and current member of the Spellman Board of Trustees.

Additionally, as a special thank you for their more than 20 years of leadership to the Spellman Alumni Association, former President, Joseph DeFazio and former Vice President, John Endres, both from the class of ’71, received crystal awards from the Spellman Board of Trustees.

We extend our sincere appreciation to the golf outing committee and to the event sponsors. It is through the support of individuals and businesses that Cardinal Spellman High School continues to grow and thrive.

On June 24th, ERIKA MCGREGOR HORTON ’87 and JOSE AMORO ’84 made their engagement official in Spellman’s Anne Gevlin Little Theater. Although Erika and Jose did not know each other while students at Spellman, they connected through the large alumni network on Facebook, began dating, and the rest is history. They were married on August 9th on the Big Island in Hawaii. We wish Erika and Jose a lifetime of love and happiness. #spellman4life

RAFAEL COLLADO ’72
HOONORED AT INAUGURAL BRONX CHILDREN’S MUSEUM GALA

THIS PAST MAY, THE BRONX CHILDREN’S MUSEUM hosted their first-ever gala which will help fund access to the arts, music, dance, environmental studies, and STEAM-based exhibits and programs for the 250,000+ children of the Bronx. The historic event honored Spellman Board of Trustees member, Rafael Collado ‘72 along with Richard Abrons and Bronx native, Kerry Washington.

Rafael’s award was presented to him by his daughter, Amanda Collado, a Board member for the Museum. Adding even more excitement to the evening, Rafael, during his acceptance speech, pledged a donation of $1 million dollars to the non-profit organization’s operating fund. “What this Museum has the possibility to do,” honoree Kerry Washington told the crowd, “is to say to our children of the Bronx, we matter, your own community matters, this place that you call home matters and be excited about who you are and be excited because of that, possibilities are endless and you can go anywhere and be excited about who you are today and who you will be tomorrow.”

“Mom and Dad came over from Ireland in the mid-1950s, got married, settled in the Fordham section of the Bronx, and raised five children,” he said. “We were a very close family, and not just because the seven of us shared a two-bedroom basement apartment.” McGuinness said visits to Fordham’s campus offered a way for his mom to “get the kids off the block.” Years later, McGuinness, now a Fordham trustee, worked in the registrar’s office as an undergraduate business student. He named several Fordham staff members who were “very, very kind to me and had an influence on me for a lot of things that I ended up doing in my life.”

Ms. Tighe has been named to Crain’s Most Powerful Women in NYC list since the listing was inaugurated in 2007, ranking #1 in 2011 across all New York City industries.

CRAIN’S RANKS MARY ANN (SCARANGELLO) TIGHE ’66 AMONG MOST POWERFUL IN NYC

MARY ANN (SCARANGELLO) TIGHE, Spellman class of 1966 and Chief Executive for CBRE’s tri-state region, was named, once again, to Crain’s Most Powerful Women in NYC list. Coming in at #3, Ms. Tighe was recognized for her leadership in the NY commercial real estate business. Astronomically, the value of her 2016 leases equaled $3.1 billion!

Ms. Tighe has made commercial transactions totaling more than 97.5 million square feet and has been cited as a groundbreaker in a traditionally male-dominated industry. Her deals have anchored more than 14.4 million square feet of new construction in the New York region, a total believed to be a record in commercial brokerage. Ms. Tighe has been named to Crain’s Most Powerful Women in NYC since the listing was inaugurated in 2007, ranking #1 in 2011 across all New York City industries.

Travers Island
located on 33 scenic acres beside the Long Island Sound, is the NYAC’s home in the country.
Earlier this year, a delegation from Cardinal Spellman visited Catholic Schools in Australia. In just 7 days this combination of teachers and administrators visited 4 secondary schools, 1 university, 2 cities and the offices of the diocese of Melbourne. Along the way there was time to sightsee, with visits to the Blue Mountains, the Sydney Opera House, and Manley Beach. A few hearty souls even climbed the Harbour Bridge in Sydney. Some Spellman alum living in Australia even joined them for dinner.

The impetus for this trip began back in 2013 when teachers and administrators from St. Thomas Aquinas in Melbourne, Australia visited Spellman. As part of their North American visit, Spellman was selected as a superior school to study in areas such as curriculum design, teaching styles, and Catholic identity. The group was so impressed with Spellman, out of all the schools they visited, that an invitation was offered for Spellman to visit and tour their school in Australia.

Even though there was fun to be had, the main purpose of the trip was to learn about Catholic Schools in Australia. The good news is, they are thriving. Australia’s Catholic Schools are funded by a public-private partnership between the federal government and the local diocese. Because of this, course offerings are very diverse with vocational education being an option in every school visited. The delegation saw many exciting and innovative ideas in action on their visit and hope to incorporate them into the Spellman school day.

This past June, 300 graduates received diplomas in a touching ceremony at the Lehman College Performing Arts Center. An invocation by Rev. Peter Pilsner was followed by senior, Alicia Murray singing the National Anthem. Mr. Daniel O’Keefe, President and Principal, congratulated the Class of 2017, and urged them to embrace the values learned during their years at Cardinal Spellman High School in both college and their future careers. The 300 graduates join 21,819 other Spellman alumni since the first graduation in 1963. The Principal also announced the names of a number of teachers celebrating anniversary years in 2017: Trudy Keane (40), John Farrell (35), John Smith (30), Anne-Marie Norberto ’82 and Lynn Tomcek (20) and Kathleen Steves (20).

Prior to the awarding of diplomas, Rev. Trevor Nicholls, former President of Cardinal Spellman from 2005 – 2014 provided the keynote address. This was especially moving for Rev. Trevor, since the class of 2017 was the last class that he had welcomed to Spellman during his Presidency. Additionally, student speakers were Valedictorian Antonio Jimenez, the top ranked student in the Class of 2017, who will be attending the University of Pennsylvania in the fall, and Salutatorian Gianni Ferrara, who will be attending Manhattan College.

The Cardinal Spellman Trophy and Memorial Scholarship, given to the two students who best embody the spirit of Francis Cardinal Spellman, were awarded to Damian Henry and Jacinta Addo-Badu. Jaylen Cockecharm and Leonardo Vega received the Spellman Spirit Award, while the Spellman Alumni Award went to Sophia Stephenson and Edward Gajda. The Seton-DeLaSalle Award, named in honor of Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton, founder of the Sisters of Charity, and Saint John Baptist de La Salle, founder of the Brothers of the Christian Schools, was presented to Deanna Falciglia and Tariq Schinney.
Spellman Alumni
Return for Career Day

This past spring, Spellman hosted its Alumni Career Day for the Junior and Senior classes. More than 50 alumni participated in the event, which was also attended by the faculty and administration. Journalist Grace (Rossello) Noone ’83, served as Mistress of Ceremonies and Rev. Christopher Argano Vocation Director for the Archdiocese of NY, provided the invocation for the morning. This year’s panel of keynote speakers featured an all-star cast consisting of Sr. Veronica Wood, class of 1974, Formation Minister for the Sisters of St. Francis of the Neumann Communities, Dr. A. J. Contento class of 1982, Doctor of Optometry, Jennifer Batista, class of 2008, Attorney at NBC, and Jim Joseph, class of 1987, Theatre Manager at the Samuel J. Friedman Theatre.

Following the presentations, students were provided with the opportunity to personally meet their predecessors in the gymnasium – exposing them to professionals in various fields including law enforcement, the armed services, healthcare, marketing, medicine, law, banking, education, engineering, religious vocations, computer technologies, and media communications. For over an hour students eagerly asked questions and obtained information from the alumni. After dismissal, participants and faculty met for brunch to discuss the day, reminisce about the past, and learn about current Spellman students.

FINE ARTS SHOWCASE PRESENTS
STUDENT-MADE WORKS OF ART

In what has become a much anticipated event for the Spellman community, the 2017 Fine Arts Showcase presented the outstanding artistic talent of many Spellman students. Ms. Marie Murray, Chairperson of the Fine Arts Department, coordinated the event. The beautiful displays of paintings, illustrations, photography, cartoons, and abstract art were arranged in the Anne Gevlin Little Theater. It was very evident that a great deal of time and hard work went into these masterpieces!

SPELLMAN'S LEADERS IN TRAINING STUDENTS VISITED IONA COLLEGE

Thanks to the efforts of alumnus, Terry McCormack, class of 1963 and Iona College grad, a special VIP tour of the Iona College campus was provided to the students of Spellman’s Leaders in Training (LIT) summer program. LIT prepares the newest Spellmanites for a successful high school career by cultivating and growing the leadership qualities of each student to help them become leaders at Spellman and in their community. The day at Iona began with an information session in Romita Auditorium in Ryan Library, followed by campus tours. The day concluded with complimentary lunches for the students and chaperones provided in Burke Lounge in Spellman Hall. The trip was a great success and the Spellman community is very grateful to Mr. McCormack.

SPELLMAN STUDENTS PARTICIPATE IN THE NYC URBAN DEBATE LEAGUE

THIS PAST SPRING, four members of the Class of 2019 participated in the New York City Urban Debate League’s Bell Aliire Leadership Institute Girls Debate League Tournament at Hunter College. This program has worked with young women since 2005, inspiring, mentoring and training them to become leaders in creating positive social and economic change. Sponsoring an all-girls debate tournament is part of their mission.

SUMMER HARVEST OF SPELLMAN’S GARDEN

For the past three years, the 4G Club (Go Green Garden Group) has established and maintained a vegetable garden in the area between the school building and the Convent. We’re happy to report that 4G had another successful harvest this summer. The students grew cucumbers, radishes, Swiss chard, squash, eggplant, peppers, tomatoes, basil, assorted herbs, and carrots. Faculty, staff, parents, and friends were able to purchase these vegetables at the annual Spellman farmer’s market.

CLASSIC STAGE COMPANY ACCEPTS SPELLMAN STUDENTS

Once again, Spellman students have been accepted by The Classic Stage Company’s (CSC) NextGen Theater Internship Program in Manhattan as interns for the 2017-2018 school year. CSC offers a unique opportunity to be a vital part of an acclaimed Off Broadway company. NextGen members are the leaders of the next generation of artists and audiences. Spellman students: Spencer Boland, Katherine Faminiano, Natalie Fontanaz, Lynn Li, Lakshmanath Sawak and Alanah Vasquez will participate in workshops, get to go behind-the-scenes, develop business skills through interaction with full-time staff, and gain insight into working in theater through meetings with artists and theater professionals.

GOOD COUNSEL HOMES

As part of their service to the community, Cardinal Spellman’s Pro Life Club concluded a week-long fundraising drive for Good Counsel Homes in the Bronx, a nationally recognized nonprofit leader in services for homeless, pregnant, and new mothers and their children in the context of the Catholic tradition.

Students, under the direction of faculty member and club moderator, Dave O’Reilly, delivered over a dozen boxes of diapers, formula, clothing and many other baby items. The donations were raised during the annual “Baby Shower” drive which collected items from the entire school. After delivering the items, the students, Angeles Sequeira, Miyoshi Huicochea, Katherine Gomez, Rudy Salcedo, Davida Okeke, Gabriela Chinga and Taina Edmund spent time conversing with moms and holding and playing with babies.

SCIENCE RESEARCH CLUB GAINS MOMENTUM

Alumni Speakers Welcome!

DURING THE RECENT SCHOOL YEAR members of the science research club furthered their understanding of the process of professional and academic scientific research. Based on topic areas of interest, students read professional abstracts and articles, summarizing and presenting corresponding findings to their peers in the club. A senior student engaged in hydroponic research with the help of the 4G Club and a professional outside mentor, and presented this research to alumni.

In 2016-17, the science research club met with Spellman alumna Valerie Romeo-Messana, Director of Admissions at the Graduate School of Basic Medical Sciences at New York Medical College. Ms. Romeo-Messana spoke to students about STEM careers and corresponding courses of graduate study, connecting the skills and academic foundation students have the opportunity to develop at Spellman to what is required in those later studies and career paths. Students gained quite a bit from this interaction with an accomplished alumna.

Having a variety of STEM alumni come to Spellman and speak to the club in 2017-18 would provide a meaningful benefit and support to current students with STEM career dreams. Whether it be to share career knowledge and experience with students, to provide information about summer research opportunities for students, to discuss a specific area of research you are or have been involved in, or to introduce students to available outlets of independent STEM enrichment such as parks, museums, and laboratories, your time and effort would be greatly appreciated by students. If you have interest and availability for this initiative, please email Vice President for Advancement Ms. Jennifer Rivera (jrivera@cardinalspellman.org) and/or Science Research Club Coordinator, John Manuschak (manuschak@cardinalspellman.org).
SPELLMAN TEAM TAKES FIRST PLACE AT THE ST. JOHN’S UNIVERSITY ACADEMIC BOWL

Cardinal Spellman’s Academic Team competed in St. John’s University’s second annual College Advantage Academic Bowl. Team members Sophia Stephenson, Damian Henry, and Starlene Parris competed in a Jeopardy-style competition against thirteen other area Catholic high schools for top prizes of scholarships to the university.

Spellman easily made it into the semi-finals, but had to compete in a tie-breaker for the finals. The final round included an “I Want to Be a Johnny” category— trivia questions regarding the history of St. John’s University. The students were well prepared and battled their way to winning the entire competition.

Each Spellman student was awarded a $20,000 scholarship to St. John’s University. Team captain Sophia Stephenson will be attending St. John’s this fall.

▲ Congratulations to the Academic Pilots on a well deserved victory!

STUDENT STORIES

Spellman will host its first academic invitational for seventh and eighth grade students on September 30th at 9:00 a.m. in the Mary Anne Payne Robertson Auditorium. The event will introduce students to high school academic bowl competition.

CLASS OF 2017 SETS A NEW RECORD FOR CLASS GIFT

The Class of 2017 set a new record in gross revenue for sweatshirt and T-shirt sales. Students in Mr. Schoenberg’s Personal Finance and Marketing classes coordinated this annual sale which benefits the school as a Class Gift. The “Class of 2017” shirts generated $11,735. These funds will go directly toward assisting their fellow students in financial need through the S.O.S.S. (Support Our Spellman Students) Fund.

Congratulations to the entire Class of 2017 for going above and beyond in raising funds and giving a fantastic class gift to the S.O.S.S. fund!

STUDENTS COMPETE IN NATIONAL ACADEMIC CHAMPIONSHIP

Over the Memorial Day weekend, the Spellman Academic Team traveled to New Orleans, LA to compete in the National Academic Championship. The invitation to compete came as a result of their win in the St. John’s University College Advantage Academic Bowl. Team Captain, senior Antonio Jimenez led his fellow teammates, senior Sophia Stephenson, and juniors Spencer Boland and Sierra Sutton in six rounds of competition that won them a place in the playoffs. Unfortunately, they were eliminated in the first round of playoffs. The placement though earned them a spot in next year’s Nationals.

LEADERS EMERGE IN SPELLMAN SUMMER PROGRAM

The Leaders in Training (LIT) summer program, for incoming 9th graders, helps to ensure that each student is ready for their Spellman experience and beyond. Through the newest Spellman students got a first-hand look at the school and what it will take to be leaders in the Spellman community.

Through the program’s various activities, such as leadership training, team building, learning methods of effective uses of technology and techniques for high school preparedness, LIT students received a feel for what it will take to be successful at Spellman. As well, LIT introduces opportunities that Spellman can afford each student by taking them on college trips (this year to Iona College and Yale University). LIT truly helped these students become the men and women of vision that Spellman consistently produces.

WHERE FUN AND LEARNING MEET!

Spellman’s Pilots Enrichment Program also known as PEP for rising 7th and 8th graders, had another great summer this year at Spellman. This program, which helps students prepare for the Test for Admission into Catholic High Schools (TACHS) and their next year of studies, offered a safe and collaborative learning environment that used interdisciplinary strategies to help mold the critical thinking skills of each of our students. With classes such as English, math, art, science and Spanish, students enrolled in PEP get to work on their problem solving skills, creativity and academic enrichment. PEP also embraced the use of technology in the classroom as each student was provided with a Chromebook for the duration of the program. Not only that, but PEP students were able to utilize the spacious campus of Cardinal Spellman to have fun with different activities ranging from athletics to scavenger hunts and more! PEP is truly where fun and learning meet!

The Spellman community recognized the contributions of over 350 student athletes at the Block “S” awards dinner held at the school on May 13, 2017. Mr. Daniel O’Keefe, President and Principal, welcomed everyone in attendance, and acknowledged the hard work and dedication of the coaches in developing the athletic talents of the students. The evening included the induction into the Spellman Hall of Fame of two individuals who helped contribute to the success of the athletic program through the years. Steven Martz of the Class of 1986 and Michelle Bennett of the Class of 1987 are the newest members of the Hall. Both competed in Track and Field during their years as Spellman students.

The night featured the presentation of the Schiazza “S”, which is given to students who have received seven or more varsity letters over their four-year high school career. It is named in honor of the late Salvatore Schiazza, who served as Athletic Director, Moderator of the Alumni Association, and member of the Board of Trustees. Senior, Nicole Hill with eight Varsity letters, and Rodney N’Guessan, Leah Anderson, Deanna Falciglia and Karina Wilson with seven Varsity letters were recipients of the 2017 Schiazza “S”.

Scholar-Athletes, recognized for their excellence in both athletics and academics, were Samantha Vega and Christopher Onate. Athletes of the Year were Nicole Hill, Leah Anderson, and Rodney N’Guessan. The following received the Most Valuable Player award in their respective sports: Baseball: Nick Texidor and Eric Berrios; Boys’ Basketball: William Santiago; Girls’ Basketball: Kerri Deans and Dewyn Elliott; Bowling: Juan Peetz III; Football: Eric Berrios; Girls’ Lacrosse: Maryanne White; Boys’ Lacrosse: Mark David Reeve and Jared Williams; Boys’ Soccer: Marcos Leon and Nicholas Romero; Girls’ Soccer: Jacinta Addo-Bach; Cheerleading: Kimora Chambers; Softball: Deanna Falciglia and Jada Robinson; Boys’ Indoor Track: Jonathan Hackshaw; Boys’ Outdoor Track: Stephen Weir; Girls’ Indoor Track: Leah Anderson; Girls’ Outdoor Track: Tayla Davis; Boys’ Cross-Country: Jonathan Anderson; Girls’ Cross-Country: Leah Anderson; Boys’ Volleyball: Justin Dantes and Justin Sanchez; and Girls’ Volleyball: Nicole Hill and Nikki Gerald.

Each year, during the month of April, Spellman dedicates a week to Relay for Life activities. This year, a 2 vs. 2 basketball tournament was included to raise money for breast cancer awareness and research. The sporting event was held in memory of former Spellman faculty member, Patricia (Opp) Hannon, who passed away in 2005. The event raised over $600 which the students donated to the American Cancer Society.

An unexpected Volleyball reunion occurred when more than 30 alumni from the classes of 2006-2016 joined together at Spellman over the summer. It was so much fun that the alumnae hope to do it again in the future!
